Is a pleasant sort of heart sickness, but it has its responsibilities. The young sufferer must have especial regard for personal appearances. His clothing, his linen, his neckwear must all show the care of the scrupulously neat young man.

Clothing lasts a good deal longer for being well kept, too. It is necessary first only that it be properly made and fitted, for an ill-fitting suit, whatever the cost, can never add to a man's attractiveness.

Proper Suits, $12 to $35.

Boys to Begin With.

We want to begin with the Boys of 3 years and upwards, because we want their trade when they are grown to manhood.

That's why our Boys' Clothing is better made than the dry goods store sorts and why it is sold at such close for an Italian criminal. The police are of the opinion that some gang of Italians in New York is concerned in the attempted murder of Fedechi, learning his mission, and that they selected Calabur to put him out of the way.

When placed under arrest Calabur said that he was 20 years old. He admitted he had committed the assault, and said that he had been selected to kill the officer. Calabur was taken before the dying man and positively identified.

Fedechi would not make a statement which would enlighten the police as to his specific errand in America, and it is remarkable that he has been able to speak a word, so frightfully is he injured.

For more than forty years Mrs. Cope and her eister had lived a secluded life in the homestead, which in the summer time was aimost hidden from the street by tail shade trees, rosebushes and honeysuckle vines, climbing three sides of the house to the roof.

The aged sisters for a score of years seldom ventured beyond the gate. Last summer Mrs. Cope, although 100 years old, worked in the garden among her roses and other flowers, which she took great delight in caring for. When Maria Vidal died, Mrs. Cope began to fall. She would sit for hours in her sister's chair, weeping. She engaged an aged housekeeper, and they lived alone in the house.

Mrs. Cope's heart became very weak, and Doctor Goodwin was sent for, but he could do little for her. She passed away as easily as though she had gone to sleep.

Her father was Francis Vidal, a Spaniard who took part in the Napoleonic wars. She is the last of four sisters, each of whom lived more than ninety years. For thirty-five years she was a member of Trinity Episcopal Church. Nephews and nieces, it is said, will inherit her fortune.

Butte County Woman Amazed at Unexpected Good Fortune.

Gridley, Mont., May 16.—Mrs. Henry Berry, who has lived on a stony side-hill ranch near the Mountain House, in this county, making a precarious-livelihood from her farms, believes her financial troubles are over.

A prospector named McCall discovered a pocket of rich quartz on har land, and when he came to the house he brought 11.000 in gold, which he had taken out during the day.

He said he could have taken out $5.000 if he had not stood around so much looking in amazement at the quartz, which was fairly seamed with gold. One specimen weighing six pounds, was more than half metal.
